JOSEPH E. KETTWEIN
BORN OCT. 7. 1903

SEE AND HISTORIAN.

I wrote this book as a living Memorial to our ancestors who played such a great part in the early history of our community.

The information gathered in this book came from many sources.

I remember as a child my grandparents and my mother speaking of the "Early Ettweins" and with this knowledge still fresh in my memory I decided to write this book.

The "Ettwein" name is a name to be very proud of.

A lamp never burns forever and I sincerely hope that someone continues this work as time goes on.

Joseph E. Ettwein

Handwritten text, mostly illegible due to fading. The text appears to be organized into several paragraphs or sections, possibly containing names, dates, and descriptive notes. Some words like "John" and "Mary" are faintly visible.

1. Bethlehem, Pa., U.S.A. and The Ettwein Family.

1741 to 1955

The first white settlers in Bethlehem, Pa., arrived in 1730.

The first American Home for the Moravians was established in Bethlehem, Pa., in 1742. Bethlehem, like Philadelphia, has the oldest and most historical tradition of any city in Pennsylvania.

The town of Bethlehem, Pa., was founded and named on Christmas Eve, 1741, by the Moravians and their leader Count Zinzendorf. This took place in the first house of Bethlehem.

This house was built of logs and mud and it was in this house that Count Zinzendorf held the first Christmas Eve Services from whence Bethlehem was named.

The Hotel Bethlehem now stands where the first house stood on Main Street in Bethlehem, Pa.

John Ettwein and his wife Johannetta Maria Kymbel Ettwein came to America from Germany as Missionaries for the Moravian Church, settling and making their home in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. They were the first Ettwein family to settle in the U. S. A.

John Ettwein was born of French Huguenot stock. His great grandfather, Jean Edwin, fled from Savoy, France, from religious persecution, finding refuge at St. Georgen in the Black Forest, Germany.

John Ettwein's maternal grandparents had been Protestant exiles from Karnten, in Austria.

Bishop John Ettwein's grandfather was -

Joseph Ettwein - Born 1650

His grandmother was -

Anna Hackringos - Born 1655

Bishop Ettwein's father was -

Matthias Ettwein - Born 1694

His mother was -

Elizabeth Margaretha Vogler

Born 1694

1621 to 1955

Bishop John Ettwein left a brother, Gottlieb, who was still living in Stuttgart, Germany, in 1798 and a sister, Dorl Kohler, in Sveybrucken, Germany.

Bishop John Ettwein's wife, Johannetta Maria Kymbel, was born September 26, 1725, in Hackenburg, County Sayn, West Philia.

In 1749 a daughter was born to them and was left to be brought up in Moravian Institutions in Lindheim, Germany.

John Ettwein and his wife, Johannetta, accompanied Countess Zinzendorf to London in 1749.

The church placed them in charge of work among children and many happy years followed.

A son, Christian, was born to them in Fetterlane, London, England. John Ettwein was to learn later that his stay in London and mastering the English language would mean so much to him in his work in America.

THE ETTWEIN FAMILY

On April 20th, 1754, The Ettweins came to America, settling in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. From then on his work started with the children in and around Bethlehem. Later he became known as "The Traveling Pilgrim of the Gospel". He traveled most of the thirteen Colonies on horseback, many times his wife traveling with him. Ettwein traveled some 20,000 miles and was well known to everyone along the paths of travel. He was known to be a man-honest-realistic and had plenty of courage in the service of his Lord and The Church. He took a very active part in our government during the trying and stormy days of the Revolution. He acted as Chaplain to the sick and wounded in the Military Hospital in Bethlehem. General Washington stopped at the Sun Inn when on his way through Bethlehem to Long Island. He visited with Bishop Ettwein and attended services with the Bishop at the Moravian Church. Later When leaving Bethlehem, Ettwein rode part way with the General on horseback through the woods on route from Bethlehem to Easton. The path taken by them is now know as Ettwein Street in Bethlehem, Pa.

Buried in Moravian Cemetery, Bethlehem, Pa.

Bishop Ettwein and his wife came to America, leaving their daughter, Anna Benigna, in Germany to be reared in the Moravian Schools in Lindheim. Years later, upon her arrival in America she learned of her mother's death. (She had never seen her mother.) She became mistress of her father's family and cared for him during his illness until his death. Her remaining years were spent in the Sister's House, Bethlehem, Pa.

1621 to 1955

Taken from an article from the Globe-Times, Friday, January 22, 1926, written by Mrs. Elizabeth Myers.

The Bishop was a widower and his daughter, Benigna or "Benel" as she was familiarly known in Bethlehem during her long life, was the mistress of her father's family. She deserves remembrance for her many virtues. But this generation would be apt to select her for a place in the "Hall of Fame" because she was the first to make "The Moravian Mints". And so established an industry that bids fair to outlive all of the others that once thrived there.

RECIPES

SCHNITZ AND KNEPP

DRIED SWEET APPLE SLICES AND DUMPLINGS

Three (3) lbs of ham

One (1) Qt. of dried apples

Two (2) tablespoons brown sugar

Two (2) cups of flour

FOR THE DUMPLINGS

Four (4) teaspoons baking powder

1/4 teaspoon pepper

1 egg well beaten

1 teaspoon salt

Milk enough to make a fairly moist stiff batter.

Cover apples with water and let stand overnight. In the morning cover the ham with cold water and boil for three (3) hours. Add the apples and the water they were soaked in and boil for another hour and add the sugar.

Make dumplings by sifting together Flour - Salt & Baking Powder - stir in the eggs, milk, and shortening. Drop the batter into the hot liquid and cook for 15 minutes.

BROWN CHRISTMAS COOKIES

1 pint of baking molasses

1 cup brown sugar

1/2 pint of melted shortening

1 teaspoon baking soda

1 teaspoon each of -

Nutmeg, allspice, cinnamon

Flour enough to stiffen.

Chill before rolling.

Roll very thin and bake.

MORAVIAN SUGAR CAKES

1 1/2 cups granulated sugar

1 yeast cake

1 cup mashed potatoe water

1/2 cup shortening

1 pint of milk (diluted with water
half and half)

2 eggs

Pinch of salt - Flour to stiffen

Dissolve yeast cake in warm water, potatoe water and add to luke warm milk. Add sugar, salt, and flour and knead until it becomes a soft dough. Place dough in a container, cover, and put in a warm place overnight.

In the morning knead and put in pans and let raise until dough becomes three times its size. Put in pans and make holes all over cake with finger and fill holes with butter and brown sugar.

OLD FASHIONED LEMON CAKES
(with filling)

1 3/4 cups granulated sugar

1/2 cup butter

2 eggs

1 teaspoon soda

1 teaspoon cream of tarter

Flour to stiffen and roll like pie dough. Make lower crust and top same as for a pie. Sprinkle granulated sugar on tops.

- - - - -

FILLING FOR LEMON CAKES

1 cup Karo

1 cup hot water

1 lemon (peel and grate)

1 cup brown sugar

3 tablespoons flour

Boil ingredients together and put in crust same as you would for a pie and bake.

WHITE CHRISTMAS COOKIES

3 Eggs

$\frac{3}{4}$ cup of butter

$\frac{1}{4}$ cup cream

$1\frac{1}{2}$ cups granulated sugar

$1\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoons baking soda

$1\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoons cream of tarter

Vanilla for flavoring

Mix soda in the cream and add the cream of tarter.

Add enough flour to stiffen
(about 6 cups)

Chill before rolling. Let stand in refrigerator over night.

Roll thin and sprinkle with granulated sugar or with colored sugar.

BREAD AND BUTTER PICKLES

1/2 pint of olive oil

One peck of pickles

25¢ worth of onions

10¢ worth of celery seed

Three (3) pints of good cider vinegar

Peel the pickles and slice to thickness desired.

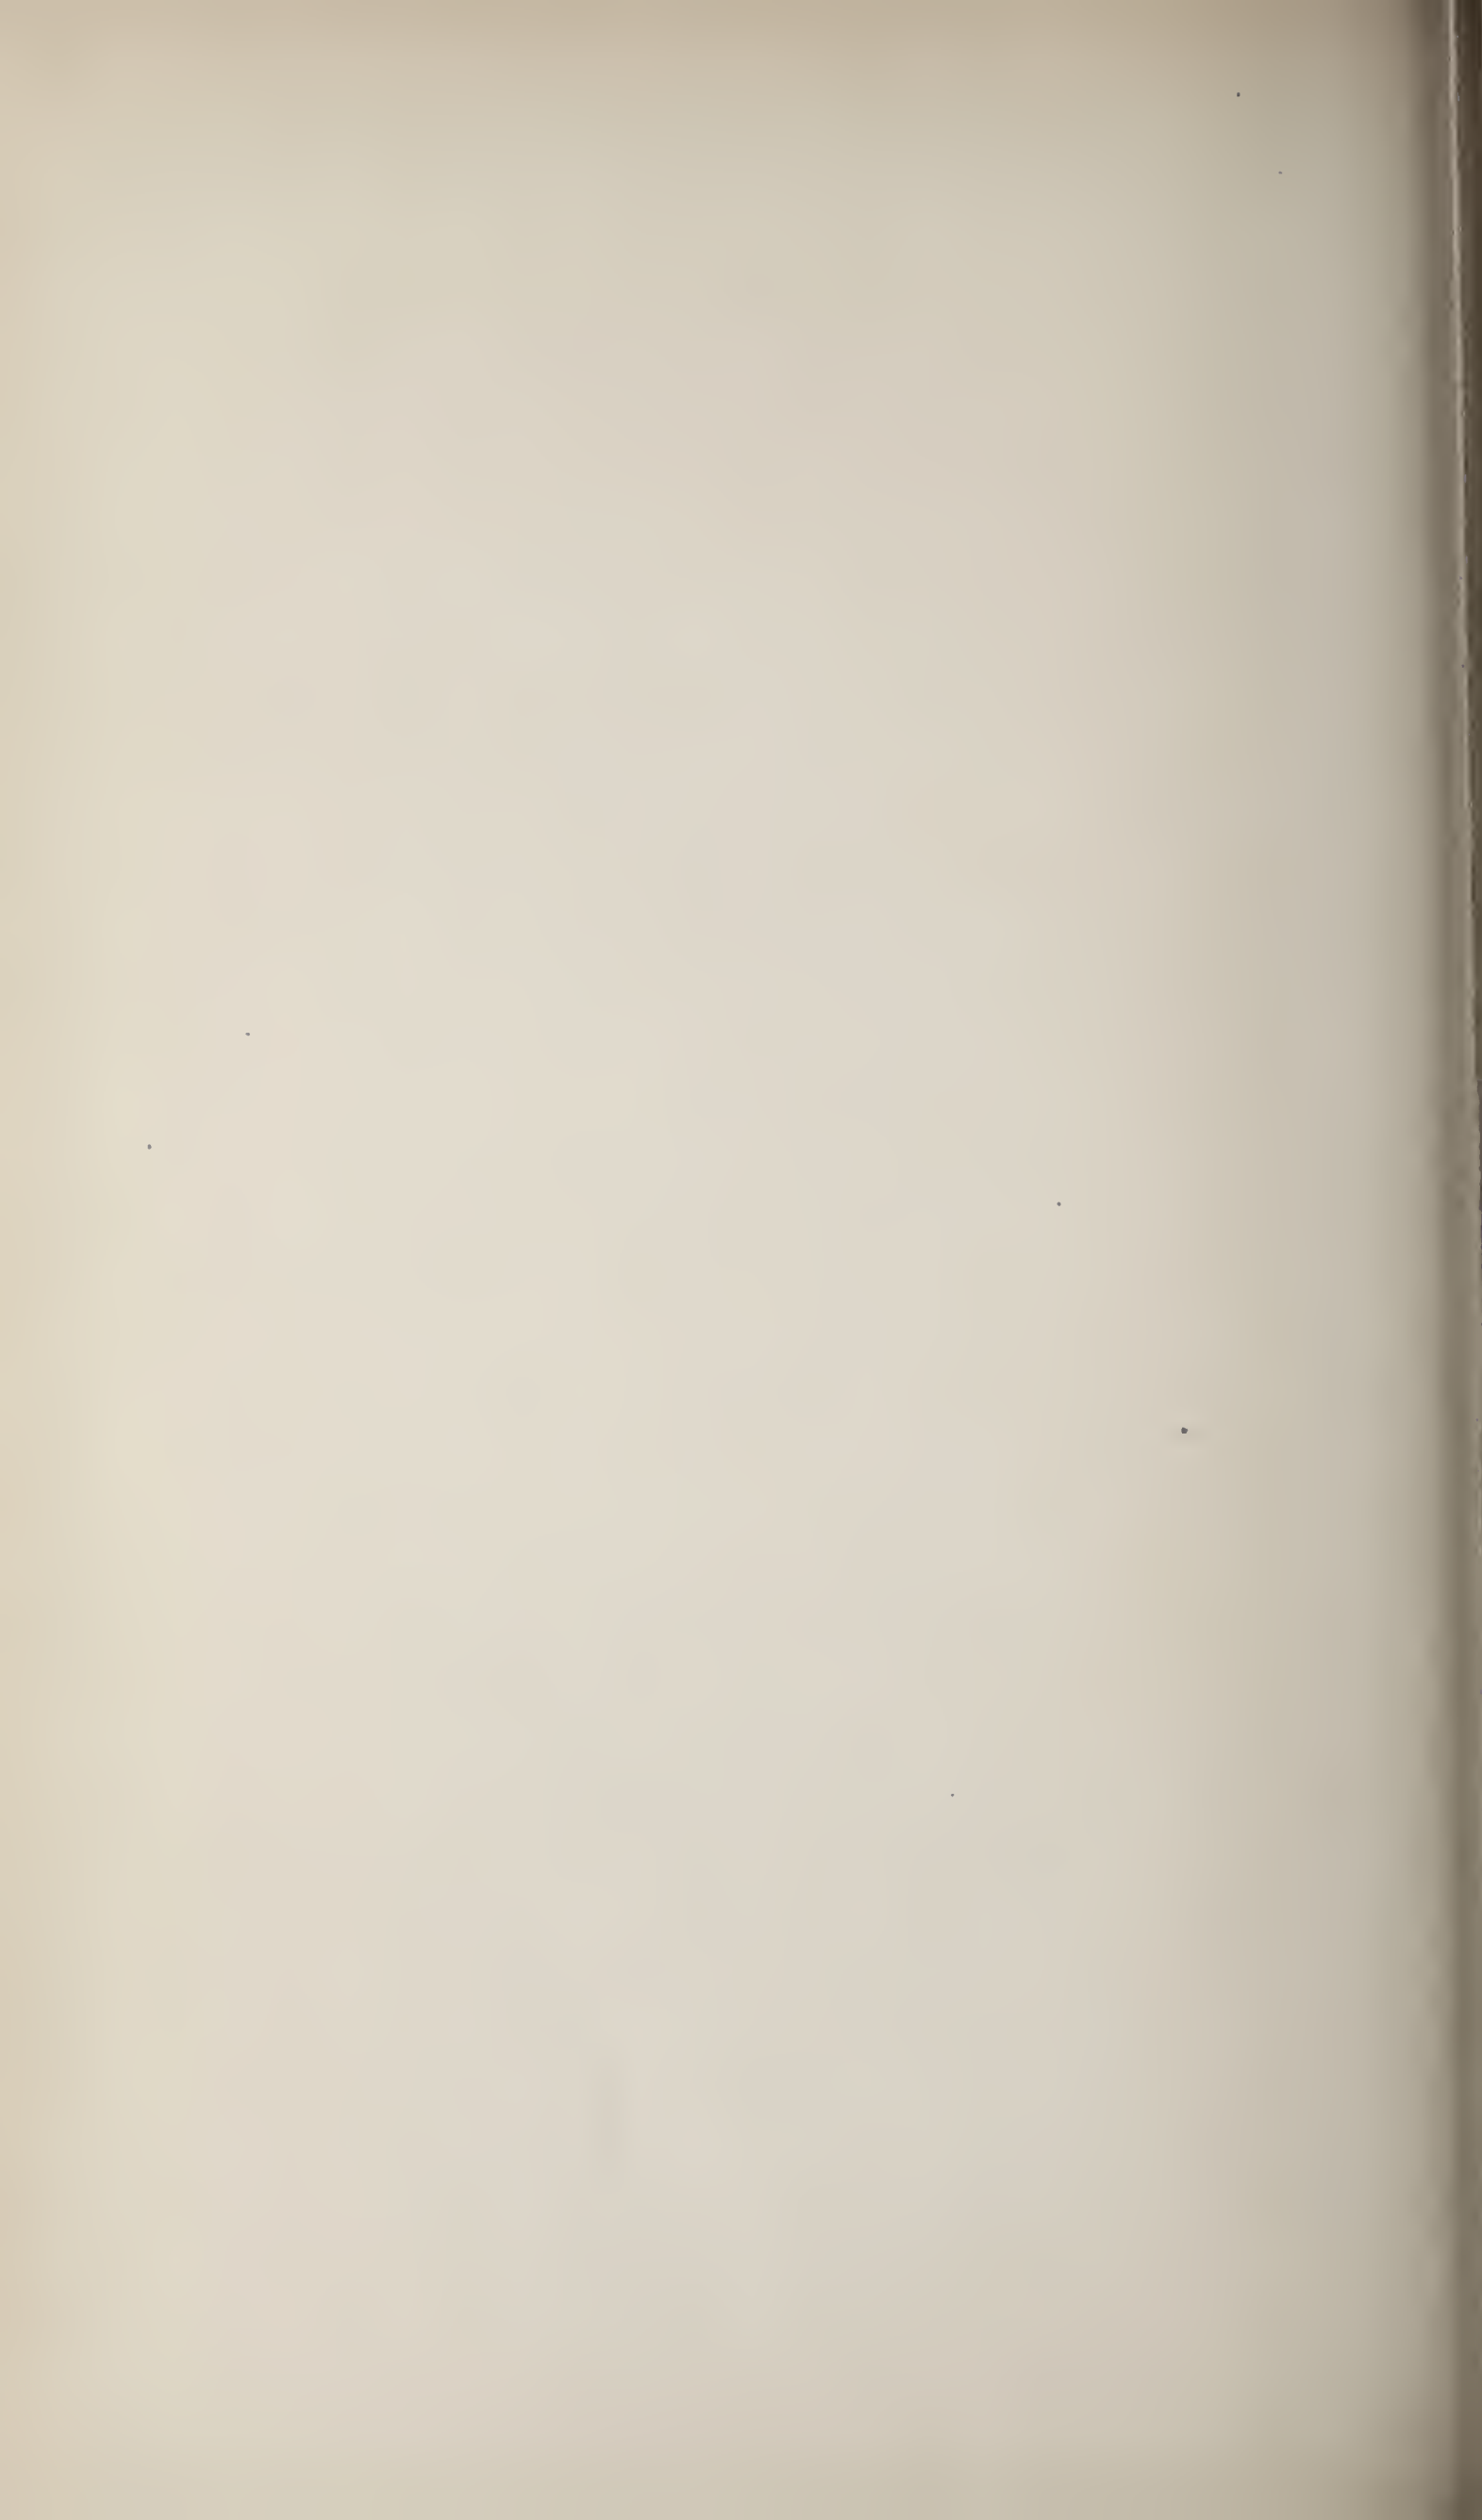

Add the onions after slicing pickles.

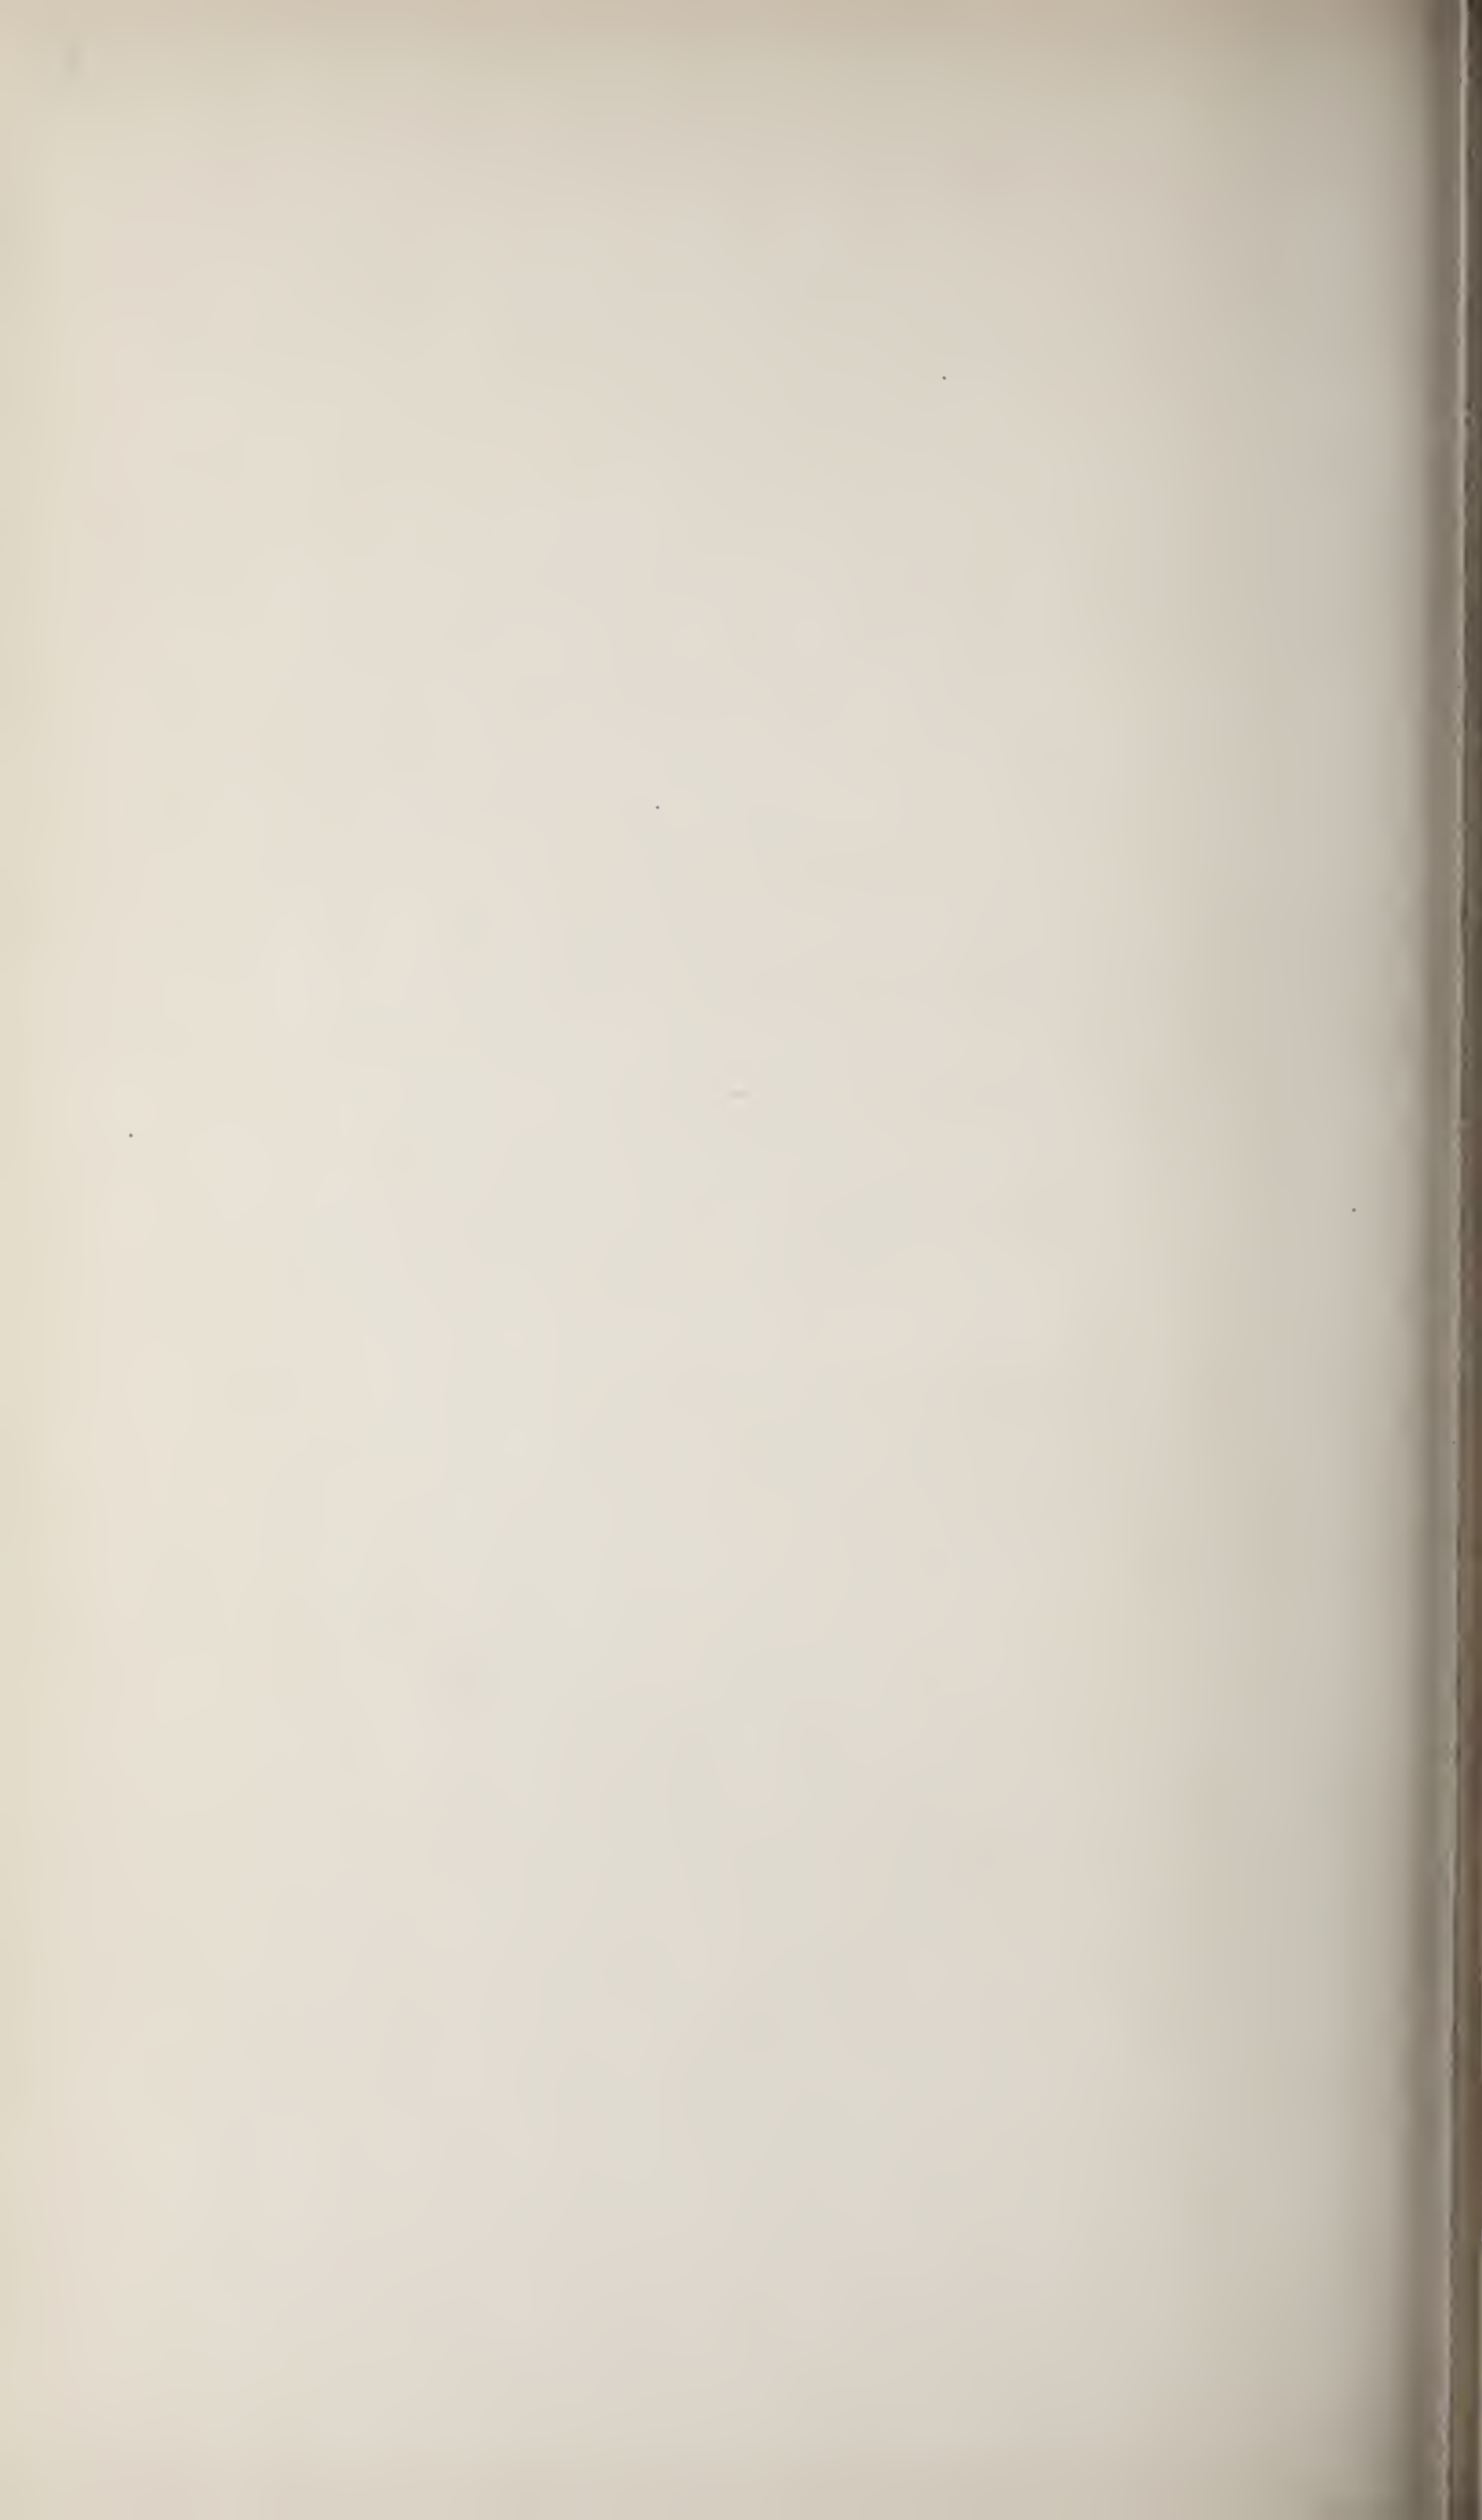

Mix the pickles and onions together and put them in a crock and cover and let stand overnight.

In the morning drain and add the olive oil.

Mix in the spices and stir slowly.

Add the vinegar and pour into airtight jars and let stand for six weeks.
